

Future in Exchange – Youth and Dialogue Forum

24th November 2025 | Berlin, Germany

Draft program, as of 23rd October 2025

09:30 Arrival & Welcome Coffee

10:00 Opening

Robert Crumbach, Minister of Finance and European Affairs of the State of Brandenburg, Deputy Prime Minister of Brandenburg

Jelena Hoffmann, Chair of the Board, West-Eastern Encounters Foundation

10:20 Introduction & Overview

10:30 Dialogue Session – Expectations & Ideas of the Next Generation

Interactive workshop in plenary and small groups, using participatory methods developed by MAGNET – Lab for Dialogue and Understanding

Two focus areas:

1. Young people and their future

- Expectations, wishes, hopes
- Concerns and fears
- Perspectives on older generations and a shared future

2. International youth cooperation in practice – insights, opportunities, challenges

- What does the young generation want from international youth work – and what do they need?
- Main goals of youth projects today
- Opportunities for young people and Challenges in practice

In between: 30-minute break

14:00 Lunch

14:45 Presentation Slam

15:30 Break

15:45 Youth Cooperation – Methods & Tools, Three parallel workshops:

1) Building Connection: From First Contact to Group Cohesion

Organized by the Juve Foundation for Youth Exchange, in formation

2) a) Empowering Youth-led Civic Activism: Applying EPF Methods

Organized by the Eurasia Partnership Foundation

b) MediaMaster

Organized by Yeghvard Youth Ecological NGO

3) Revolutionising Youth Work through Digital Tools

Organized by Copernicus Berlin e.V.

17:45 Vision Wall / Presentation of results, Moderation: Lisa Wernz

18:15 Dinner

19:00 DJ-Set: Sianna

22:00 End